The gate is similar like Lempuyang , but less crowded, and it is a popular spot for photography, representing the cultural and natural beauty of Bali. It features a split gate design, typical in Balinese temples and palaces, symbolizing the cosmic mountain that separates the earthly realm from the spiritual world. The gate is part of the Handara Golf & Resort Bali, situated in the highlands of Bedugul, and serves as an iconic entrance to this scenic area. Followed by Ulun danu Temple, which is world renowned for its scenic beauty. This temple is located on the shores of Lake Baratan, there it is also known as floating Temple. Its situated in Bedugul Highlands of Bali. The cool climate and scenic surroundings make it a popular destination among tourists. There is an optional boating activity at the location of Ulun Danu, which can be done on direct payment basis. Boating on Lake Bratan allows visitors to enjoy stunning views of the temple and the surrounding mountains Followed by Tanah Lot with apicturesque location and stunning ocean views, is especially renowned for its sunset views. Many visitors come to witness the sun setting behind the temple, creating a beautiful silhouette against the evening sky.
